

Notification regarding your price plan

Why am I receiving this notice?

Under EU regulation we are required to issue a best tariff advice notification to you once in every 12-month period if you choose to remain on your price plan after the minimum term is over.

What advice is included?

We have set out below a number of possible service options and price points which you can choose to suit your individual likely needs.

Can I stay on my existing price plan?

You can of course stay on your existing price plan if that is your preference and no action is required. This message is simply designed to make you aware of the options that are currently available which may have changed since you connected to your current plan.

How can I change my price plan?

If you want to change your price plan, please contact us directly after this end date to make the change there. You can also change your plan in a Vodafone retail store or call our Business team on 1907.
