Our Escalation Process

Our customer care team always aim to fully resolve your query on the first attempt.

If at any time you believe your query has not been resolved to your satisfaction, please ask for your query to be escalated to a team leader or to our customer escalations team (the CXX team).

- If available, we will pass you to relevant escalations team straight away. We will acknowledge your complaint by text or email within 48 hours by providing you with a complaint reference number. If you need the complaint reference on the call just ask our agent and they can provide this to you but we will still send the text acknowledgement from the team handling the escalation.
- If not available, they will provide a call back within 48 hours at a time that suits you.

If, having dealt with them you still feel that we have not dealt with your complaint appropriately then you can seek a more detailed review.

If having dealt with Customer Care you would prefer to submit details directly to the CXX team you can also use our online form to set out detail of your complaint by clicking here (<https://n.vodafone.ie/forms/consumer/customer-complaints.html>).

You can also choose, if you prefer, to submit detail via email by contacting escalationonline@vodafone.com. You can also choose to submit by post, at the following postal address:

Customer Escalations
Vodafone Ireland Limited,
Mountainview,
Leopardstown,
Dublin 18,
Ireland

You will receive your complaint reference within 48 hours of receipt.

Complaints

Definition

According to the Commission for Communications Regulation ('ComReg'), a complaint means:

“an issue raised by an end-user to an undertaking relating to that undertakings product or service or its complaints handling process where the issue remains unresolved following an initial attempt by the undertaking to resolve it or where there has been no attempt by the undertaking to resolve it and the end-user expresses dissatisfaction, through one of the channels set out in the code of practice, that the issue remains unresolved.”¹

Acknowledging your complaint

Once you've made a complaint to us, our Customer Escalations team will reply to you within two working days to acknowledge your complaint. This email or text will contain the following:

- Confirmation that the complaint is recorded;
- A timeframe for resolving your complaint;
- The unique reference number you submitted with the complaint, which will be used to identify and track your case;
- The contact details of the Customer Escalations team;
- The next steps in the process; and
- A link to this Code of Practice.

Recording your complaint

We will keep a record of your complaint. These are the details we will record:

- Your name, account number and contact details including a phone number;
- The date the complaint was raised and dates of all communication throughout the life cycle of the complaint to final closure;
- A copy of the written complaint or notes made from the voice/online communications with you relating to the complaint; and
- All communications with you including details of the response to the complaint, final resolution and any determination in respect of the complaint with associated documentation.

In line with our Data Retention Policy we will retain these details on our system for a minimum period of one year. For legal reasons customer information may be held for up to 7 years.

Resolving your complaint

We will endeavour to resolve all complaints promptly. Within 10 working days, the Customer Escalations team should be able to propose a final resolution to your problem

¹ Electronic Communications Complaints Handling Code of Practice - Response to Consultation and Decision, ComReg 17/62 D04/17

However, where a final resolution cannot be provided within 10 working days we will provide you with an appropriate timeframe for resolution, details of our ongoing resolution process, and details for contacting ComReg. If we have been unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 10 working days you may refer the case to ComReg for further investigation.

Refunds

Refunds will be granted on a case by case basis, depending on the details of the complaint. Our Customer Escalations team will let you know if you are eligible.

Where a refund is granted, it is typically applied as a credit to your Vodafone account. If you wish, a euro denominated cheque can also be issued. This may take up to 15 working days to be processed.

Statutory Rights and Independent Bodies
